Firt Money vs. Flat Goods.

I went into his store and asked for a par "All rite," said Pollock; "m'at kind a money do you propose to pay in—the glo-rious flat uv the present or the despised greenback uv the past?"

"Sir!" I remarkt impressively, "I am too patriotic not to assist in gitting our new money into cirkelashum. I shel pay in flat, of which I have plenty, and more a-comin'." "All right," sed Pollock, perdoosin a lit-tle strip of leather. "Them is the boots," "But they is not boots," I exclaimed dist as much ez I kin with your money You say that piece uv paper you bev is money-I say that piece of leather is boots. My word is, I trust, ez good ez yoors."

And with a feendish laff he told Joe Big-ler to keep an eye on me, and turned around sellin substanshel boots to a nigger farmer who had nashnel-bank notes.

Sadly I went over to Bascom's and found there the entire Corners discussin the finanshel sityooashun. There wuz Deekin Pogram in his old familyer chair, there wuz Issaker a tyin on his back on a round-table that the citizens play keerds upon when it is aroused, and Captain McPelter leanin aginst the bar, all sighin at the scarsity uv money and the deprest condistin uv industry. It wuz a site I hev seed a thousand times, and it melted me. I determined to demonstrate that ther wuz one patriot that wood respeck the laws uv his native place and accept her currency. "Gentlemen," I sez, firmly, "step up.

Bascom, set'em up." Bascom hed bin takin' our money for some days, and hed bin to Louisville for likker. He sot out the bottle with a sardonic grin that boded us no good. We each poured out the likker, however, and placed the glasses to our respective lips. Immejitely every man spitted the likwid out upon the floor. I turned sick, for I hed uncawshusly swallered a little uv it. IT WUZ WATER! THE FIRST I HED TASTED FOR YEARS!

"Wat does this mean, sir?" I demandid feercely. "Don't you like the whiskey?" wuz the anser ez he glared feercely at me.

"Like it! Like it! Why, it's water." "Bless yoor sole," replied Bascom, "why don't yoo say it's whiskey? The minit yoo say it's whiskey, it is whiskey. Yoo say the paper yoo want to pay me in is a dollar, jist becoz yoo say it is a dollar, and why in bloody thunder can't you make whiskey out uv water by just sayin' its whiskey. GENTLEMEN, THIS IS FIAT WHISKEY, and it's the only kind I kin' git with flat money. When yoo git to payin' in the comfortable old greenback, or the modest nickel, all rite. Pil give yoo the regler old bowel-scorcher. But the likker is goin' to assimilate to the money. I learned that word in Louisville. Ef yoo want to pay in fiat money you are goin' to git fiat likker. Ef yoo kin imagine a peece uv paper with yoor stamp onto it is a dollar, yoo must likewise imagine this flooid to be good likker, and vice versy. Parson, this is all you will ever git with yoor kind uv money."

And he leened back agin his bottles with a defiant air, and we sank back terrified. Where is the end to be? I don't know. Oh! that Butler wood carry Massychoosits. and git into power, so that his genius cood solve the problem. Ef Bascom repudiates the fiat money it is all over here. PETROLEUM V. NASBY, Finanseer.

Hindoo English. [From the London Truth.]

It is as petition-writers that Angelicized stopped at the threshold of a university, chiefly distinguish themselves. An officer attached to the Hyderabad Contingent was once favored with a thrilling appeal from a native woman converted to Christianity: To Gentlemen and Ladies:

Having heard of your benevolence, I therefore make it my duty to come to you not only to pay my respects, but to pro-cure an help from gentlemen and ladies. I need scarcely mention, by the grace and favor of God, that I got three brothers and two sisters, including me, but my brothers are dumless, and they have no legs and hand, but for my another sister, she have no eyes, and for myself I can't talk, and besides that my brothers and sisters they never eat rice nor bread except milk and sugar, and my brothers and sisters they are turned as Christians. For which act of kindness I shall ever pray for your long life and prosperity.

The foregoing petition was probably the handiwork of a professional letter-writer, but the following application for assistance was penned by the petitioner himself:

Sir,—Excuse me if I presume to unfold myself and my grievances to find comfort in my troubled bosom. Born and brought up as I am in the lap of poverty, I have none to look after and back me from the distress and want which I have fallen with my wife and children. The late decrease of the pay to my post of gate-clerkship has made a considerable effect even to the bare living of ourselves, so that life is seemed no better than a torment. And I don't know what to do and whom to complain, and where to harbor myself in. At last it is the inpate and intitive impulse, as it were, in me to look upon your honor as a father and patron to keep myself under your wings and to hatch warm comforts to my cold bosom. I have the honor to be, sir, your most obedient servant.

TILDEN OUGHT TO HAVE HAD A WIFE .-[Albany Express.]—Tilden was so cautious that he did not dare to have a wife and children, and now he finds himself done to death by a nephew. If he had only had an honest, aggressive, clear-headed spouse she would have smelled a rat, broom-sticked the whole slippery gang of ciphering coparceners out of the house, locked the old man up, and thereby saved him a heap of trouble.

GOOD AT A BARGAIN.—Doting Mother: "Yes, I shall be happy to give you the wages you ask; but I shall expect you to love the dear children." Nurse: "I shall be very happy to do so, ma'am; but, of course, that would be an extra."-Boston

How far it seemed, your great, fair town, Where swedt girl-looks lure, ever new; Where rose-leaf lips rath sweet speech do Oh jealous heart! Oh love, be true! I need but you...! need but you!... The sun goes down! Nay-'twas a passing, breeze-lossed cloud;
A springing step comes down the lane;
Oh heart, be still—beat not so loud!
Dear eyes look into mine again.
And tender looks and kisses rain
From that dark cloud.

Willie Carpenter, in Springfield Republican. Bright Auswers that Turn Away

Wrath. [Punch.] Said General Phillipovitch, commander in chief of the Austrian army of occupation in Bosnia, to a smart sergeant of hus sars, "Which is the best horse in the squadron, eh?" "No. 2, General; bay, with four white feet and a blaze."

"Why do you consider him the best?" "Because be trots and gallops well, caries his head well up, is still young, and has the best of tempers."

wWell, and who is the best soldier in the quadron ?" "Nazy d'Anos, General."

"Why is he?" "Because he takes care of his horse, in honest and serviceable, keeps his equipments in perfect shape, and does his duty up to the handle."

"Where is the horse you have cracked "It's my horse, General." "And who is the paragon of soldiers you have lauded thus?"

" I am the man, General." "You rascal!" said pleasantly the commander, as he passed his purse over to the trooper.

An educated Chinaman, Kwang Chang Ling, is writing letters to California journals, in which he contradicts many current ideas about China. He says that the population is only 100,000,000 or 120,000,000, instead of 450,000,000; that the country has reached the limit of agricultural development; that the population and prosperity have been decreasing since 1761; that unless improved machinery and methods are adopted the people will not be able to support themselves; that the wealth of the Empire is in the hands of a few, and that with a diminishing population and increasing wages at home there can be no great tide of emigration to this country.

A young woman was on trial before western police court on the charge of petty larceny, and her counsel pleaded in her be half that she was a victim of kleptomania. "Kleptomania?" asked the Judge, in the most innocent manner. "What is kleptomania?" "A disease, my lord," said her counsel, "the subject of which is uncontrollably addicted to larceny." "Oh! I see," said the Judge; "and a disease, sir, which the judges are sent on circuit as a physician to cure. My prescription on the present occasion is twelve months' imprisonment, with hard labor."
